Notice of Landlords Inspection

This inspection is very important, but if the above inspection time is terribly inconvenient for you, please call the landlord as soon as possible to reschedule. Landlord's Name:

How Often Can a Landlord Inspect a Rental Property?

My landlord put something in my lease that said there would be monthly inspections but my lawyer said it isn't legal anyway and putting this in the lease doesn't make it legal since it conflicts with state law. He said I was not to let them in again for another inspection and to call police if they try to get in. I suspect the law is the same in Florida.

What Is a Landlord Walk-Through Inspection?

A walk-through inspection is when a landlord and a tenant go through the rental unit to inspect for any damage or illegal alterations to the unit.

Landlord Property Inspection Guide & Notice Template

Most tenancy agreements will have inspection clauses specifying that the landlord has permission to access the premises to conduct an inspection. For example, here are the clauses which are found in the tenancy agreements available from this website (and the one I personally use):

Landlord Advice & Documents | Tenancy Management | PIMS

Inspections by Landlord. Generally Landlords should be wary about entering the property when the Tenant is not there. Technically without the Tenants expressed permission they may be making themselves liable to a claim of harassment, or be vulnerable to allegations of theft if the Tenant claims that property has gone missing.
