So begins Pride and Prejudice, for some reason the publishers have chosen a typeface for this book that is so miniscule and compact, it's extremely difficult to read! Surely, the whole idea of committing something to print is for it to be legible, otherwise there's not much point, in my opinion. Publishing books is Norton's daily business and has been so for many years. How can they have Pride And Prejudice And Zombies 2? Here's What We Know
