The religious movement that grows up around this inoffensive and admirable dictum eventually leads to Shaklin's martyrdom and the quiet growth of a new religion. The story shows the way a religious meme grows; in seemingly-barren soil, fertilized by the religions that precede it and watered by the blood of martyrs.

Round the Bend by Jeremy Clarkson - Goodreads

I liked to read it inbetween books, so if I needed a break from another book, I could just start "Round the Bend" wherever I left over and read how many pages/articles I liked, put it down and repeat this process later.

Don't do anything silly, and look after Francine. From deep underground in a remote Bolivian mine to the scorched Australian outback, Round the Bend is an adventure travel story. It explores the turbulence of redundancy, the excitement of travel, the anguish of leaving home and the challenges of starting a new life in Australia.
